

THE ENFORCEMENT OF THE RECENT LIQUOR LAW.—We understand that the police officers of the wards of the city went round this morning notifying the keepers of restaurants and drinking saloons that if they continued selling spirits after to-night they would be one and all prosecuted under the new law. We learn further that the officers say that they are in this matter under instructions from the corporation attorney, who deems it his duty to wait no longer for the termination of the appeal case now pending before the District Court.

YESTERDAY.—The churches of Washington were exceedingly well filled yesterday morning with congregations that appeared much interested in the various discourses for the occasion, all of which duly enforced the obligation of all to keep in view the duty of ever present gratitude for the multitude of blessings which Americans enjoy. We presume that on no previous occasion were so many able and eloquent sermons ever delivered among us. The afternoon and evening were dedicated by all in Washington and Georgetown to hilarity. Walking and riding parties were the order of the day, the streets being crowded with well dressed and cheerful pedestrians, and the roads leading from Washington in all directions being filled with parties on horseback and in vehicles, riding for the most part as though with the knowledge that the beasts were lively animals. We noticed the horse flesh more especially when the reins were handled by young men bent on having a "bust" of it throughout the day. We were unable to hear of the first intimation of the peace in the streets; those inclined to be uproarious having the good sense to go out of the corporation limits to indulge that propensity. The balls, the Kunkel troupe at the National Theatre, the Dramatic Association's entertainment at Iron Hall, and Parrow's troupe at Forrest Hall, in Georgetown, were the points of popular resort in the evening. On the whole, though the day was a very gay one, the sincere lover of good order in the community could not have desired to have it more quietly observed.

THE RACES YESTERDAY.—A very large crowd attended at the Columbia course yesterday—larger than ever before—when they gathered there from Washington, Georgetown, and Alexandria, and the surrounding country, in all manner of carriages and on foot, a considerable portion of the company being of the b'hoysish order. Of course they had a jolly time of it, the weather being fine, and the day a racing field of exciting features.

A fight course of the afternoon a "chunk of a fight" came off between perhaps a dozen of the Georgetown b'hoys and as many from the kingdom of Cooney, which has been the subject of the course to render it the easiest thing imaginable to get up a scrimmage anywhere around or about there, on the shortest possible notice. In the fight, however, no one was dreadfully damaged, though the elated flower like water, and blackened eyes, disheveled hair, and sadly disarranged clothing, gave the course for the time being a regular Donkeybrook fair aspect. To us, the only wonder is that more serious results did not grow out of the fight, the day being so hot, and the temptation for them to go there being greater than that likely to induce them to spend the day anywhere else. The "little joker" played his part, of course, as well the roulette and sweat-blot men there. So they go. The contest between the Fauquier and Georgetown horses was an exciting one. The Georgetown horse sprang ahead full fifty yards at the start, but was rapidly overtaken by his competitor, who came in about fifty feet. To-morrow's racing bids fair to be better than any ever before coming off over the Columbia course.

PRESIDENT'S MOUNTED GUARDS BALL.—The ball of this fine mounted troop at Odd Fellows' Hall last night, was a magnificent affair. The ladies in their gayest attire and buoyant spirits and the gentlemen attentive and enthusiastic. Amongst the military present, we noticed Col. Hickey, Lieut. Col. Kiley, Major Keyworth, Quartermaster McCullum, Captain Stewart, Captain Carrington and members of several of the military companies, among which were two of our distinguished company in full uniform. Their bright helmet coat looked brilliant among the gay company. They appeared to attract general attention. The music from Prosper's band added to the general enjoyment and dancing was kept up with much spirit. At 11 o'clock supper was announced. The table was loaded with the profusion of every thing and was paraken with great order by the ladies and gentlemen present. While the band was playing, the commander, Capt. Peck was a source of popular pleasure, and the pleasant manners of Lieut. Baden and Flint and the committee of arrangements in their attention to the wants of the guests, are deserving of mention. It was indeed a splendid ball and may have many of the same kind.

WILLARD'S HOTEL.—In looking through this establishment, we were struck with the many extensive improvements which are being added. Since the closing of the last business season, a new addition has been erected, by which the hotel is enlarged sixty feet and the main dining room has been lengthened forty feet, and by turning on L. fifty feet additional, making it of an extent one hundred and ninety feet, being the largest room of the kind in this vicinity. It is being frescoed by Dr. Laramo in his best style. New and expensive chandeliers are making up Cornelius & Co. New and improved steam works have been introduced for cooking and laundry purposes. Gas is introduced into every room, and warior and the public and private parlors have been newly upholstered and carpeted. The entire establishment, by December, will be in very superior condition. Expensive marble mantels have been put in many of the rooms. The house contains twenty private parlors and many suits of rooms for families, &c.

THE WASHINGTON DRAMATIC ASSOCIATION. By invitation we attended the exhibition of the dramatic talent of this association, given last evening at Iron Hall. At an early hour we were in hand, when we found the hall crowded by the respectable portion of our citizens, on looking round we noticed a fine display of the beauty of Washington, which, to us was the most attractive feature of the evening. Owing to the excessive heat of the room, which is badly ventilated, and the crowd, we remained but a short time, long enough, however, to see the material the association is made of. We shall not, at present, particularly, but simply remark that several members are quite talented and performed and dressed well. Others, however, were entirely out of place; one chap was so remarkably modest that he hid his eyes above the floor in a voice that could be heard beyond the foot-lights. We advise our young friends at their next exhibition not to issue so many tickets, nor admit half-grown, unruly boys without some one to keep them in order.

KUNKEL'S SOIREES.—There was a fine attendance at the National Theatre last evening to witness the excellent performances of the Kunkel Troupe. The songs of Adams, Kunkel, and Berger were warmly applauded. Wm. Penn Lehr, with his Jordan an hard road to trouble, brought down the house. Joe Brown proved to be the best negro dancer on the stage. Floyd, the country dandy, danced as he only can dance. The performance was continued this evening, when a fine bill is offered.

A GOOD JOKE.—The editor of the Methodist Protestant, printed at Baltimore, in speaking of Bullard's celebrated Panorama of New York City, which commences its exhibition here at Odd Fellows' Hall next Tuesday evening, says: "We were amused on a late visit at an old gentleman and lady who sat behind us. When the bird's eye view of the city was before the audience, ere the unrolling of the great painting had commenced, the party took up the idea that what was before them was all that was to be seen. Waiting some ten minutes they became impatiently of the fact, and with an air of surprise, as though they had been sold, they rose and in quite a stately manner left the premises."

YOUNG MEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION.

The last monthly meeting of this Association was held at the E Street Baptist Church. There was a good representation of the members, and a very respectable audience. Two very excellent essays were read, one by W. Q. Porter, M. E., "On the Difficulties encountered in fixing upon a Seat of General Government." The essay evinced much of a high research, and brought out many facts of a highly interesting character which ought to be more generally known by our citizens. The other essay, by Rev. Mr. Hasbick, "On the Moral Causes of Physical Calamities," exhibited in a very clear and argumentative manner, that most of our physical evils are referable to moral causes.

The report of the progress of the Association, of cheering character. A Sabbath-school of nearly eighty scholars in a very needy portion of the city, is in successful operation, conducted by some of the members of the Association, and it promises great good. A Bible class has also been established at the rooms, every Friday night, to which the young men of the city are affectionately invited. Several committees were appointed to consider the several fields in this city inviting the labors of Christian men. The young men of the Association seem to be awake to the work they promised to do. Never before have they been so much useful. Theirs is a peculiarly a benevolent association, with an excellent library and reading-room for its members, at a trifling expense. The operations of the Association are carried on by the most devoted and efficient of men, and we understand they are about to make a special appeal to the liberal minded and Christian people of our city to aid them in their operations for the coming year. It is hoped that the good citizens of Washington will not allow this appeal to be made in vain. AN AUDITOR.

BOONE RIPLEY'S BALL.—On last Wednesday night, this popular corps gave their annual ball at the new Odd Fellows' Hall, near the Navy Yard. It was a very pleasant affair, and attended by a large number of ladies and gentlemen, and was opened by a dress parade of the company, whose movements elicited the admiration of all present, and reflected the highest credit both upon the officers and men. It was attended by the members of the Mount-Edwards, the Washington Light Infantry, National Guards, the American Riflemen, Colonel Hickey, Major Bacon, and Quartermaster McCullum, of the Regiment, were also present. The party was a delightful one, and the dancing was kept up until the inspiring music of Prosper's band, until an early hour in the morning.

PARROW'S BENEFIT.—LAST NIGHT.—The Parrows make their last appearance at the Iron Hall this evening, on which occasion "Old Bill Parrow" will take his benefit and make his last appearance. It is expected that the old fellow will put his best foot foremost this evening, when, we trust, he will have a full house. It should not be forgotten that the entertainment this evening will be a gift concert, when a chance will be offered to lucky ones to draw a gold watch and a number of other handsome gifts. The gift concert of the Parrows have heretofore been conducted with a fairness that has rendered general satisfaction.

THAT SILVER TRUMPET.—IRON HALL was filled, on Wednesday evening last, by those who came as well to see the excellent performance of the silver trumpet, as the excellent performance of the Parrows. Upon counting the number of tickets sold by the rival companies it was ascertained that the Northern Liberties Fire Company had sold the greatest number. Eight hundred and thirty-eight was the number sold by the victors.

INCENDIARY ATTEMPT.—We learn that some house-burning rogue, after stealing all the silver and gold from the E. K. Lundy, Esq., located at No. 43 Low Avenue, Georgetown, attempted to set the house on fire. Fortunately, the effort proved abortive.

FINE FISHING.—A party of five enthusiastic disciples of Isaac Walton, spent Thanksgiving day fishing on the south edge of the North channel of the Potomac, at a point about 20 yards east of the north end of the causeway of the Long Bridge. They caught 500 fine spears in the course of the day. One of the party hauled out 23 with a single hook in 3 minutes.

THE MR. VERNON GUARD BALL.—The ball of the Mount Vernon Guards came off on Wednesday night at Sarepta Hall, Alexandria, and was a brilliant affair. The attendance was large and all were highly delighted.

MR. THOS. C. CONNOLLY has been elected superintendent of the approaching exhibition of the Metropolitan Mechanics Institute. He is a gentleman of capital address, and will, doubtless give satisfaction to all in the position.

AT ALEXANDRIA, the Commonwealth vs. Arrington, indictment for murder, jury failing to agree were discharged, and the case continued to May term, 1855.

WATCH RETURNS.—Jas. Brown, drunk and disorderly; fine and costs. Wm. Naylor, do. do. Wm. Henderson, disorderly; dismissed. John Fox, fighting; security for court. David Fyne, breach of peace; security for peace. David Shaw, do. do. profanity; fine and costs. J. Pender, drunk; do.

GEORGETOWN CORRESPONDENCE.

GEORGETOWN, Nov. 24, 1854. Every thing in our city yesterday passed off unusually quiet for a public day. The places of business were closed, and the town assumed the appearance of the Sabbath. The larger portion of our people attended the various churches, where they had the pleasure of listening to discourses suited to the occasion.

The Sabbath-school exhibition at the Methodist church, in the evening, was a beautiful affair, and gave satisfaction to the crowded audience in attendance. So admirably conducted was the whole affair, and the misses and masters acquitted them with so much credit, that it was difficult to restrain the audience from manifesting their approbation by loud clapping.

[The crowded state of our columns compel us to omit the programme.] The Rev. Henry Slicer was present, and seemed to enter heart and soul into the spirit of the children and highly pleased with their performance. At the conclusion of the exhibition he made for them a short but quite amusing and interesting speech, which obtained for them very nearly the amount asked for. Every thing passed off fine and about the management of Mr. W. H. Edes, the superintendent, and Mr. B. Stinemetz, the fire company, which comes off on next Tuesday evening, promises to be not only the first ball of the season, (in our city,) but the ball of the season. The members are actively engaged making preparations. In addition to the festivities of the occasion, the interesting ceremony of the presentation of a pair of bracelets to the children of the Northern Liberties (of Washington,) with an air of respect for the beautiful bouquet which was presented to the Vigilant some time since, will also take place. The company, it is expected, will parade in uniform on the day of the ball.

The offerings of beef cattle at Drovers' Rest for the week has amounted to about 1,000 head, 200 of which were purchased by District butchers, at $2.25 a head. Six hundred and fifty were driven on to Baltimore, and 150 left at $2.00. Sheep, $1.75 a head; Hogs, $3.50 a head.

The flour and grain markets continue firm at our quotations of Wednesday last.
